Today Miss Janice M. Robert and Charles. Muffett is heading the list with a total of 29,800 votes. Miss Muffett picked up 8,300 votes since Saturday's tabulation appeared. With the gains of Miss Muffett, Miss Mary McAuley went into second place with a total of 26,800, and Miss Carmella Giagnacova retained her position of third in the race with 21,100.

Miss Sara Milnor stepped up considerably in the standing, with Over-Confidence and Taking a total of 18,300. Other contestants to make substantial gains are Miss Marie Wurster, of Croydon, Mary Grace Marino, and Edythe Norato. Two new names appear in the list today, Frances Venere and Doris Hendricks.

When Miss Bristol goes to Yellowstone Park this summer as the winning candidate in the Courier's Better Times contest, she will enter the park through the first and oldest Yellowstone Gateway at Gardiner, Montana. There she will pass into Wonderland through a great lava stone arch built in 1903 and dedicated by President Theodore Roosevelt.

Since 1883 world travelers have been entering and leaving led. Yellowstone by this route, following the park's establishment by Congress in 1872 as the first American national park.

The train which will carry Miss Bristol from St. Paul to Gardiner was first placed in service in 1900. It is the North Coast Limited and was the first electric-lighted train in the Northwest.

Luxurious as were its first accommodations to the passengers of that day, Miss Bristol will have the benefit of modern comforts which they never anticipated. EVEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN ARE TO BE MOBILIZED IN FRANCE WHEN INVASION IS STARTED

Bomb and Gas Proof Shelters for Every Building Ordered

As Europe's war scare subsides for the time being, it is possible for the first time to obtain and present a comprehensive and factual story of what is being done there to protect the women, children and other non-combatants from the horrors of air attacks. The dangers which may in turn hover over American cities and how they can be met are reflected by this remarkable series obtained by staff correspondents of International News Service.

The series begins with three dispatches from Paris, to be followed by dispatches from London, Berlin and Moscow, and heretofore unpublished facts are revealed.

PARIS, July 1—(INS)—What is referred to as passive defense and which as foreseen in France today would be tantamount to national mobilization of men, women and children, is revealed in a series of regulations and resolutions promulgated by the French government and the Paris municipality.

The first sentence of the first article in the law as signed by President Albert Lebrun gives a clue as to its sweeping nature. It says: "The organization of passive defense against the danger of aerial lair, N. J. attack is obligatory on all of the national territory.

William V. Fromhagen, Ferndale, Named to Juicy Highway Post MEETING IN TURMOIL Caucus at New Hope Saturday Night Disgusted Old-Line Democrats

The regime of Dr. John A. Flood, Trenton dentist, chairman of the Bucks County Democratic Committee, is again the source of much contention and strife among Democrats of the county, Two developments on Saturday accentuated this contention, and caused considerable "anti-Flood" sentiment at a meeting of the Democratic county committee, held in Worthington's hall, New Hope, Saturday night.

The meeting coming close upon the heels of the announcement in an upper-end Bucks county newspaper that William V. Fromhagen, Ferndale, had been appointed senior maintenance highway superintendent in Bucks county, and an attempt to change the by-laws and give Flood a vote of confidence, provided an opportunity for those of "anti-Flood" sentiment to express their opinions. The 69th Street Division officer of the State Highway Department, Philadelphia, today denied the story published in an upper-end Bucks county newspaper concerning Fromhagen's appointment.

"Fromhagen has not as yet been appointed, and I do not know whether he will be appointed," said division office. "No official appointment to the Bucks county job has been announced

The upper Bucks county newspaper that printed the Fromhagen story stated that "A long drawn-out fight within the Democratic party was won yesterday by the anti-Flood element when Fromhagen was notified of his appointment as supervisor of highways in Bucks County, the highest salaried job that is handed out by the state administration."

The story continued as follows:

"There has been a long and serious Stephen Gergits, 63 acres, 119 perches. controversy between the Flood and

"Unalterably opposed to Fromhagen's appointment, Flood openly threatened to resign if he is named. The victory of the anti-Flood element has renewed their determination to snatch the leadership from the Trenton dentist. His resignation is not only in order but would be highly acceptable to a host of Democrats."

According to well-authenticated information Fromhagen received notice of his appointment on June 22nd from Warren VanDyke, secretary of highways. Fromhagen was instructed that Winning two games over the week- he would be notified by district engin-

Highways leading out of Paris will e widened and modernized so as to enable several millions of individuals to leave the city within a day or so at the latest, without conflicting with army movements.

Large, open spaces outsdie of the Paris region will be set aside as "sites of Geneva," to be occupied by the evacuated peaceful population under international law, free from attack.

Equipment will be installed to detect poisonous gases. Depots will be opened for the distribution of gas masks. Red Cross signs will be placed on the top floors of hospitals. The sewage system will be reconstructed and equipped to suck poisonous vapors from the city.

The new laws provide for regular aerial defense maneuvers and tests in which the population is to participate. A perusal of these new laws and resolutions, and a study of the passive defense program, conclusively shows that France does not expect any new war, if it does break out, to be limited to any portion of the population. Everything is being done to prevent anybody, financially, economically or socially, keeping out of

Democratic Rift Grows Wider As Flood Rules Party

That is what Fromhagen told me himself, and I am quite sure that it is

At the meeting of the Bucks County Democratic Committee held Saturday night in Worthington's Hall. New Hope, according to reports emanating from those who attended, all was not harmony within the ranks of the Democrats.

Those who consider themselves bona-fide members of the Democratic County Committee and who have taken issue with what they term the "autocratic and dictatorial" measures used by the county chairman, Dr. John A. Flood, attended the meeting they say as they felt it their duty to support Dr. Flood for the best interests of the party, "but we received a severe jolt Saturday night."

Members of the committee came from all sections of Bucks County and were of the opinion, they say, that they were to attend a caucus. "Instead, we found ourselves confronted by a vin dictive chairman with a cut-and-dried program to be pushed through with the aid of a heavily-padded convention. All rules of parliamentary law and procedure were cast aside. Immediately upon calling the meeting to order a new set of by-laws was presented to replace the ones amended in 1933. Upon reading, the motion was made that they be accepted."

Committeemen suggested that some sections of the new by-laws should b more carefully scrutinized and inter preted. These members were either briefly heard, ignored, or forbidden to have the floor. Several were told they were out of order for expressing their views on the question.

County Chairman Flood, taking these suggestions as a personal affront, roared at the county committee and dared any man to defy him and his program. The vote was then taken, accepting the new by-laws, wrangling was rampant, and in the ensuing confusion, the vote taken on the by-laws was interpreted as a vote of confidence by the Flood henchmen. Those who voted against the by-laws were told that their names would be sent to the office of the State Democratic chairman in Harrisburg.

Then Dr. Flood is said to have realized that a roll call of members and proxies had not been taken, and since the had accomplished his purpose in the meeting, this was then done. After trying to salve the spirits of the bull-dozed committee by commending some members for their work in the last election, disgusted members gratefully heard the motion for adjournment.

AND BLANKETS FROM RAVAGES OF MOTHS

By Rhandena A. Armstrong

(Home Economics Representative) Have you prepared your winter clothing and blankets for Summer storage? This is the active season for the tiny buff-colored moth miller, for she is depositing dozens of tiny white eggs in these same woolen blankets and garments, so that the larvae which hatch from these eggs may begin feeding at once. All articles to be stored for the Summer must be clean. They may be washed, dry cleaned, or thoroughly brushed and aired. The latter method, however, cannot be absolutely depended upon to rid the garment completely of larvae

Here are three ways of storing clothing that is free from moths: (1) By wrapping in newspapers; use several wrappings, one over the other in such a way that the lapping will be in different places. These packages should then be placed in a box or closet also free from moths. (2) Dry cleaners will seal the clean garments in paper bags. Moths can enter through very small openings so care should be taken to keep the seal unbroken. (3) Napthalene flakes or para-dichlor-

SEED PACKERS WIN TWO WEEK-END DIAMOND TILTS

The Landreth's All-Stars captured both games of a week-end double header with Jersey teams. Saturday, the All-Stars beat the Fieldsboro team, champions of the first half of the Bur lington County League, and yesterday the seed-packers scored an 8-5 victory over the Toms Rivers A. C.

"Ed" Sullivan hurled yesterday' win, fanning eight and walking three and allowing nine hits. Ashby was the winning twirler in Saturday's contest, being very effective except for a home run by "Jim" Sweeney with two men on the sacks in the sixth.

The victories put the Landrethmen's season record at four wins and two de

BRISTOL RIDING CLUB TAKES TROPHY 2ND TIME

Delaware Valley Horse Association's trophy for teams of three hunters, at Captain and Mrs. C. Bryce Kellogg, Princeton, N. J.

Horses wearing the colors of Mrs. Helen R. Benson, Princeton, captured the majority of ribbons. Mrs. Benson's mounts won nine first places. The hosts, Captain and Mrs Kellogg, also won a goodly por tion of the honors The Bristol Riding Club won, for the second straight year the Delaware Valley Horse Associa tion's trophy for teams of three

The jumper championship was taken by Jolo, owned by Mrs. Benson. Another Benson enthy, Kamir, was the championship hunter. The sweep stakes, for three-gaited saddle horses and one of the feature events of the day, went to Vanity Box, entered by the Kilkare Stables.

Bristol's victory gives the Bristol club 13 points, with Stoneybrook their nearest competitor, having 10 points. Thomas Doran, Ralph Powell and Harry Hanford represented the locals "Freckles" and "Over There.

A Pitching Paradox

Anything can happen in baseball. Before the current season started who ould have dared predict that the left-handed ace of the Yankees' mound taff would be an unheralded Lithuanian rookie by the name of Vitautas Tanulis, and that the great Lefty Gomez would prove a dismal failure during the first part of the campaign?

The amazing decline of Gomez, which ordinarily would have sounded the death knell to the New Yorkers' pennant hopes, has been compensated for by the unexpected rise of young Master Tamulis. Vito, as he has been agged by the baseball writers, who got tired of trying to spell Vitantas, is a very surprising youth. Opposing batters can't understand how the 22-yearold Lithuanian gets by, for they insist that "Tammy" has no fast ball, and no baffling curve.

A pitching paradox, Tamulis fools the hitters with what is known as a 'nothing ball." and the secret of his success can be summed up in just one

The effectiveness of the youthful Yankee left-hander is proof positive that blinding speed or a great assortment of stuff is not necessary to baffle big league sluggers. Veterans like Willie Sherdel and Herb Pennock got by or years after they had lost their speed and curves; and the reason for their ntinued effectiveness was their marvelous control. Tamulis was raised in Boston, but he still seems like a country boy in hit a short single to right and again the big city when he comes to New York. He is anything but a playboy, and ever goes far from the hotel where he is stopping when in New York or when the Yanks are on the road

Vito's chief diversions are ping-pong and pool, and going to the movies. He doesn't dissipate, and goes to bed at nine o'clock the day-before he the horse show held at the estate of pitches. It looks like this kid is going to get somewhere.
